Local Items.

An interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

FULTON MARKET.—Few places of even much larger size have a more handsome market than "Fulton Market," in St. Albans of which E. C. Gallar is proprietor, and none can boast of a better supply of articles usually kept in such a place. Mr. Gallar's advertisement sets forth a list of things usually kept by him for sale, and customers will find by calling at the market those specialties which pertain to the season.

THE NEEDLEWORK says that the Miner at Spring on the Mountain Road from Waterville to Bakersfield near the "notch" is flourishing. It is visited daily by large parties from all parts of the State.

LONG TERM OF SERVICE.—Daniel Morry of Stanford, has held the office of Deputy Sheriff and tax collector over twenty years.

We regret to learn that A. D. Hager, Esq., of Proctorsville, while at work at his fish-pond, on Tuesday, fell in a pit, with apoplectic symptoms, which, it is feared will prove serious.

DEATH OF HON. WM. WARNER.—The papers announce the death of Wm. Warner of Detroit, formerly of Burlington, which event took place at Quincy, Illinois, on Wednesday. Warner was Treasurer of the University of Vermont from 1843 to 1849; and for two years afterwards Financial Agent of the Vermont Central Railroad. In 1851, he removed to Detroit, and was actively engaged in the lumber business for five years. At the time of his death Mr. Warner was superintending the construction of the great bridge across the Mississippi, now building by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad. He had been afflicted for years with carbuncles which together with other difficulties of a painful nature, were the cause of his death.

The Free Press thus speaks of Mr. Warner:

Mr. Warner was a man of high character, of great energy and activity, a friend of every good enterprise, a warm and true friend, and a shrewd and capable business manager. He had accumulated, we understand, a handsome property in Detroit, and has been during his stay there a member of the State Senate, gaining there, as everywhere, respect and influence among all with whom he was brought in contact. His death will be learned with sorrow by a wide circle of friends, both East and West.

We met Dr. Phelps the other day in our travels, the very obliging proprietor of the Whitney Hotel, at Putnam Junction, N. Y. Mr. Phelps has taken some pains to place his house in the best shape possible. His purchases for furniture &c, have already amounted to a sufficient sum to mitigate comfort, and not only that, but style and taste, which combined, cannot but please the most fastidious.

The celebrated Messina Springs are situated about 14 miles from Putnam Junction. Allen & Co.'s, 3rd class cars, &c, Mail cars, with express drivers run between the Junction and the springs upon the arrival of the trains from the East and West.

We would cheerfully recommend to those who contemplate visiting the Springs, to call upon Mr. Phelps, of the Whitney House. We will promise that under his hands, and courtesy you will be well cared for, and will depart well satisfied.

DISASTROUS FIRE.—It is estimated that the fires in the woods this season have destroyed in the Ottawa district standing pine timber to the value of $40,000,000, and the woods are still burning. The forests on the Montreal route are greatly detained by the smoke on the river.

NEW MAIL ARRANGEMENT.—The Postmaster-General has made the Railways Post Office between Boston and St. Albans an exchange office with Montreal, so that all mail matter received by the Postal Clerks, on their trip north for Canada, is sent through the same day, instead of going in the Burlington or St. Albans exchange offices to remain till next morning.

Parker Spring, Green.

Among the many mineral springs in this section of country that have acquired a notoriety in the last two or three years, that known by the above title deserves a prominent place, but the owner of it having very peculiar ideas of the right to property in water, and, as a result, having no self-interest to secure, it has not, we believe, been brought into public notice except, so far as its own intrinsic merit has forced it, nor has there been any scientific investigation of its properties.

It is generally believed to be chalky, but some individuals who have considerable acquaintance with mineral and gaseous waters pronounce it highly charged with sulphurated hydrogen gas, and we believe it is generally understood that the Sulphurated hydrogen waters are not very heavily charged with mineral properties.

But the question that most immediately interest the public, is not what it is, but what it does, and the evidence is incontrovertible that it possesses medicinal properties unequalled by those of any other of the Franklin County waters. Persons of the highest respectability will certify, if asked to do so, that they believe it has done wonders in the way of relieving old chronic difficulties of various kinds. Personally, we have little knowledge of it but we meet persons every day, who are, or have been, using it for some real fancied difficulties, and nearly every one is enthusiastic in its praise.

The water is not on sale, but is free to all in large or small quantities. The spring is situated about one and a half miles N.W. from Georgia Centre and about six miles from St. Albans village, on the farm of Mr. Noah R. Parker and is accessible by one of the pleasantest drives out from St. Albans.

Cool Costume.—An exchange says Beecher's summer suit is "a heavy Legion hat and a serene, happy look." This will do to mate with the item about a woman arrested on suspicion of theft, in New York, who had, says a New York paper, "nothing on her but a locket."

WEIGHT OF OATS.—The merchants of St. Louis have adopted a resolution declaring that after August 1st, thirty-two, instead of thirty-five pounds of oats shall constitute a bushel in that market.

Third Congressional District.

Republican Union District Convention.

The Republican voters of this Congressional District are invited to be represented in the Convention by their delegates to be chosen upon the basis of one delegate from each town, and an additional delegate for every hundred and every fraction of one hundred larger than fifty votes cast for the Republican candidate for Governor at the last State Election.

The delegates of the several towns on the District will be chosen at primary meetings to be called by the Republican Committee of the respective towns, and must be provided with proper credentials signed by the secretaries of said meetings.
